

LUXURY AV PROFESSIONALS, INC ACQUIRES AUDIO/VIDEO INTERIORS OF CHICAGO, INC

Naperville, IL, March 20, 2023 –FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Luxury AV Professionals, Inc, dba Luxury AV, is a privately owned authorized dealer, designer, and custom installer of uniquely crafted projects employing fine audio and video systems, networks, and control automation at their core. Residential solutions range from modern Hi-Fi systems to Media Rooms to Luxury Cinemas to comprehensive Whole Home indoor and outdoor projects, all exquisitely controlled. Commercial solutions are similar in scope using commercially rated products and have also featured Video Walls.

Audio/Video Interiors is a privately owned company also in the audio and video business. Located right across IL RT83 from the famed Oak Brook Mall, it also services residential and commercial clients. Additionally, the company has become an area destination for those clients with an appetite for mid to upper priced Hi-Fi systems. Audio/Video Interiors is known for its gorgeous showroom and as an industry leader in providing exceptional customer service to its clients since its inception more than ten years ago.

This acquisition will deliver an enhanced and unified operation consisting of a larger team of all well respected and highly experienced personnel. The combined breath of brands represented is unparalleled in the Midwest. Consolidated operations have begun and are opening many additional opportunities for both company's clients and vendor partners.

“The employees at Audio/Video Interiors are excited about joining Luxury AV and their team of professionals. Kelly and I both saw the synergies between our companies and put together a deal that made sense to us both, and more importantly our employees, clients, and vendors. We have no doubt that consolidating these operations will allow us to continue to grow and prosper together.”

– Noah T. Barenbrugge, Founder/President

“Luxury AV’s position as an even more capable and marketplace dominant provider of ‘Luxury AV Products and Accessories’ has greatly improved. All our residential and commercial client's benefit. I am extremely pleased that Noah, now a Vice President of Luxury AV, is my partner in steering the company forward. Our now larger, spectacular team of all highly skilled people have great commonality and are working well together. Combined, our quality of service is truly second to none.”

– Kelly C. Kromphardt, President & CEO
